

10 September, 2017

Dear Parents,

You are warmly invited to attend our school's annual Music Night on Wednesday, 25 October. The concert will be held in the Performing Arts Center at Lumen Christi College. Tickets for the concert will be available to purchase online only this year, at a cost of $7.00 each. Tickets are now on sale via the links below.

The evening is a wonderful opportunity for our students to perform in a superb concert venue and to celebrate and share with family and friends their year's work in music.

Please find listed below details for the evening.
